

City & Guilds, Level 2 Award, Diploma in Culinary Skills (equivalent to QQI level 5)

In order to be awarded the Level 2 Diploma, you will be required to complete 46 credits. Therefore, full attendance on each day of the 12-week offsite programme is essential.

What modules will you cover?

- | | |
|---|-------------|
| ✓ Health and Safety in Catering and Hospitality | (3 credits) |
| ✓ Prepare and cook stocks, soups and sauces | (6 credits) |
| ✓ Prepare and cook fruit and vegetables | (6 credits) |
| ✓ Prepare and cook meat and offal | (8 credits) |
| ✓ Prepare and cook poultry | (5 credits) |
| ✓ Prepare and cook fish and shellfish | (5 credits) |
| ✓ Prepare and cook rice, pasta, grains and egg dishes | (6 credits) |
| | |
| ✓ Produce hot and cold desserts and puddings | (3 credits) |
| ✓ Produce paste products | (3 credits) |
| ✓ Produce biscuit, cake and sponge products | (4 credits) |
| ✓ Healthier food and special diets | (1 credit) |

For further information on each module, please see 'module description' document or contact your relevant property as per the below.

Talbot Hotel Wexford

If you have queries please contact Aoife Sambou, HR at hrmanager@talbothotel.ie

Talbot Hotel Carlow

If you have any queries, please contact Raluca Misztela, HR at hr@talbothotelcarlow.ie

Talbot Hotel Stillorgan

If you have any queries, please contact Raluca Misztela, HR hr@talbotstillorgan.com

Middleton Park Hotel

If you have any queries, please contact Suzanne O'Brien, HR hr@middletonpark.com

Oriel House Hotel

If you have any queries, please contact Tina Hawkins, HR tina@orielhousehotel.ie